IRISH PHOTOGRAPHIC FEDERATION DIGITAL AUDIO VISUAL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS RULES & CONDITIONS of ENTRY Updated, July, 2016.

Conditions of Entry: Except where provided in these rules the decision of the organisers shall be final and binding. Submission of an entry implies that the entrant has read and accepted the foregoing in all respects

The National Competition:

Anyone who wishes to submit Sequences to the IPF National Championships are required to be a paid up member of an IPF affiliated camera club and the IPF Audio-Visual Group.

Members of the AV Group Committee are allowed to submit Sequences IPF National Championships

Categories (in the National Competition only):

- Novice: Beginners section.
- Intermediate: Authors advancing from the Novice Section and holders of an L.I.P.F in Audio Visual.
- Advanced: Authors advancing from Intermediate or Authors holding an I.P.F., (above L.I.P.F.) or equivalent AV Distinction, or have won Best Overall Trophy, or 1st prize in an AV competition.
- Club: The Andorra Trophy is awarded to the winner of this category, which involves a minimum of 5 members from a club/society.
- Humorous: The Hemmingway Trophy will be awarded for the best humorous sequence in any category.

Promotion: Starting at this year Championships a Point System will be used to allow IPF AV Group members to get promoted from the Novice to Intermediate Section and from Intermediate Section to Advanced.

New entrants may voluntary enter the Intermediate or Advanced Section but cannot revert to a lower section.

The points will be awarded for the following achievements:

- 4 Points will be awarded for 1st. Place
- 2 Points will be awarded for 2nd. Place
- 1 Point will be awarded for 3rd. Place
- 1 Point will be awarded for an Honourable Mention.
- 1 Point will be awarded for winning best first time entry in Novice

Points gained in each year of entry will be added together until the total of 4 points is reached and promotion to next level is then achieved. The Secretary will keep an updated recorded of members and their points which will be published annually at the start of each year.

In addition to the Awards for the Categories above there are special awards for Best Overall Sequence; Best Sound; Best Photography; Best Script; and Best First Time Entry, which will be awarded over all categories.

As is always the case where there are fewer entries than the total number of awards the judges will use their discretion on whether to make an award and at what level.

Duration: No sequence may exceed twelve-minute duration.

Authorship: For all sequences it is expected that the sequence production will be the original work of the entrant(s), (author(s)) and collaborators. “Collaborators need not be Club members, nor affiliated to the I.P.F.”

Copyright & Responsibility: Entrants using copyright material must obtain the necessary licence or permission. Submission of an entry implies the granting of permission for the sequence to be shown in public. Entrants must have a Copyright Performance Licence. Paid up members of the IPF AV Group are included in a group licence and hold an IPF AV Group Copyright performance licence. The Mechanical-Copyright Protection Society Ireland Ltd., (MCPS) Licence, grants permission to use music and sound only. In accordance with the established music and image copyright regulations, sequences presented at the Championships should be free of all rights of ownership, artistic or otherwise, which others may hold. By participating in the Championships author/s of AV sequences indemnify the organisers against all and any action that may be taken against them by owners of copyrights. The organisers will accept no responsibility in the case of dispute or litigation. All care will be taken in the handling of sequences, but the organisers cannot accept responsibility for loss, theft or damage

Judging: One or more qualified person(s) will judge The I.P.F. AV National Championships. They should be well known in Audio-Visual or a similar media. All entries will be shown at the National Championships. Judge(s) are not permitted to be entrants and his/her/their decision/s (regarding the results of the competition) is final.

Audience Vote: The audience can vote for their preferred best sequence in both national and International competition. This is independent of the official judging.

Technical Requirements: A digital projector, computer (Windows Operating System platform) and sound system will be provided. Entries may be submitted electronically by file transfer protocol (FTP) "WeTransfer.com" or by CD/DVD. All submitted entries shall be self-executable files (exe or mpeg4) named with the Sequences title*. All sequences should be standalone files and must run with no additional software requirements. Each sequence must run without software promotion slides and in full screen format. The sequence should be programmed with no 'run box', and to return to the desktop at the end. . If a sequence does not meet these requirements then the work will be rejected from the competition. All entries should contain a folder for each slideshow clearly labelled and also include a copy of the entry/identification form. All CD/DVD's should be indelibly labelled. The sequence file and all other material should bear the name of the sequence as printed on the entry/identification form. All sequences will be copied to the Hard Drive for projection at the National Championships. No music credits or Logos are to appear on the screen. Authors' names must not appear on sequences. . Copied material (sequences) will be archived following the Festival and the CD returned, unless other arrangements have been made with the author. Those not wishing to have their work archived, may apply an expiry date to the file sent or tick the box on entry form re permission to archive. Author's permission will be sought for any showing of archival material for use of promoting AV. The right to grant or refuse permission for showing rests with the named Author.

Entry Form and Fees: Every sequence submitted requires a separate Entry Form, forms should be sent together with sequence entry fee to the AV Secretary, Lilian Webb, A.I.P.F., 66 Roseville, Naas, Co. Kildare (lilianwebb66@gmail.com); to arrive not later than 9th September 2016. Cheques made payable to the 'I.P.F. National Treasurer or use the PayPal link ipfavgroup@gmail.com
