

Irish Photographic Federation

Photographer of the Year Competition

Rules and Regulations

2018/2019

The Competition

1. The competition is open to all members of Clubs in good standing with the IPF and their IPF Region in the current season of the competition.
2. The competition will consist of two sections, Non-advanced and Advanced.
3. Photographers who come under any of the following categories will be deemed to be Advanced photographers and are therefore not eligible to enter the Non-advanced section.
 - a) Persons who have received an IPF distinction or similar or any other distinctions from a national or international photographic organisation (e.g., FIAP, PSA, RPS), or been awarded more than one IPF medal in IPF national competitions
 - b) whose image(s) have represented the IPF in international competitions;
 - c) received five or more acceptances or one or more awards, including an honourable mention, diploma or judges' award in FIAP, PSA or GPU recognised salons.
 - d) Persons whose club considers them to be of advanced standard in any discipline of photography (eg. Monochrome, Colour Print, Projected Image, AV etc.).
 - e) Photographers who, in the opinion of the Federation, are of advanced standard are not allowed to enter as "Non-Advanced".
4. The competition shall consist of six separate sections/categories. The three themed categories usually mirror the theme requirements for the FIAP Biennials for the two years following that competition. (please see definitions at the end of this document)
 - Colour Print – Open
 - Monochrome Print – Open
 - Projected Image – Open

 - Colour Print – Theme – Creative/Experimental Photography
 - Monochrome Print – Theme – Environmental Portraiture
 - Projected Image – Theme – The Human Face and Body

Conditions of Entry

1. The competition is open to all members of Clubs in good standing with the IPF and their IPF Region in the current season of the competition.
2. Entry to the competition is via the online entry system accessible from the website www.irishphoto.ie
3. Each image entered to the competition must be uploaded as a jpeg file, 2,400 pixels on the longest side @ jpeg quality 10.
4. Each image entered requires a title. The Title should be as you would like it displayed with the image, and should not contain underscores or any special characters (Example / \ _ : " ? < > |). Titles such as "Untitled" and "No Title" are not acceptable.
5. Entries must entirely be the original work of the person represented as being the author of that work. Inclusion of third party content is strictly forbidden. Use of stock images, even if the copyright has been purchased by the photographer, is also not allowed.
6. The same image may not be entered into more than one section.
7. Images previously entered in the POTY or NPOTY may not be entered in any other year of the competition.
8. Each competitor may enter up to three images in each open section, and up to two images in each themed section. It is compulsory to enter at least one open section.
9. The IPF reserves the right to resize these images to optimize them for display or for acceptance into any international competition that the IPF may participate in.
10. Requirements for Print Entries
 - a) Prints must be mounted on 20" X 16" (50.8 X 40.6 cm) board (mounts of any other dimensions, larger or smaller, will be disqualified)
 - b) Prints must be securely fastened to the mount using quality mount tape. Framed prints will not be accepted.
 - c) IPF image labels must be fixed to the back top right corner of each print. Personalised labels will be sent by email to entrants after the closing date of the competition. No other labels or writing must appear on the back of the mount.
 - d) The prints must be presented to the regional competition event for judging.

Regional Rounds

1. It is the responsibility of each entrant to present their Print entries to the regional organisers on or before the closing date for the regional round. Entry for the 2018-2019 season is via online registration. Any issues experienced while trying to enter online must be brought to the attention of the regional organisers before the closing date set by the region for its event via the contact section of the upload page on the IPF website www.irishphoto.ie.

2. Entry Fee:

One Section: €15.00	Two Sections: €20.00
Three Sections: €25.00	Four Sections or more: €30.00

These fees must be paid at the point of registering for the regional round of the competition via the link provided on the IPF website. Entries for which fees have not been paid will be disqualified.

3. Regional committees shall appoint Judges from the list of Judges provided by the IPF Judges' Committee. Appointed judges must be from outside that region. All rounds shall be subject to the authority of the IPF National Council and the National Competition Coordinator(s), the decision of the IPF National Council being final.
4. Awards and medals decided at the regional rounds are at the discretion of the regional committees.
5. Regional rounds are judged out of nine points, and selection of images for awards should be done as in the National Finals.
6. A minimum of 80% of the entry from each region, as selected by the Judges, shall advance to the finals. The Final "cut-off" score for qualification shall be set on the day.
7. The Judges' decision shall be final.
8. Each region shall forward the qualifying prints and scoresheets to the National Competition Coordinator(s) in advance of the Finals on or before date to be confirmed annually.
9. It is the responsibility of each region to ensure that all images comply with the entry rules, prints are mounted correctly (securely fastened with no loose tape which could cause damage to other prints) and to the correct size. No other labels or writing should appear on the mount.

The National Finals

- 1) All qualifying entries for the National Finals must be forwarded to the National Competition Coordinator(s) in advance of the Final. Entries will not be accepted after this date.
 - 2) The National Final shall be held not later than the 28th February each year on a date and venue agreed by the IPF Council.
 - 3) Only images that have qualified through the regional rounds shall be eligible for the National Finals.
 - 4) In the National Finals each image will be scored out of five points. Therefore, the maximum score for any image will be fifteen points.
 - 5) Images scoring 13 points or more will be presented to the judges for the purpose of awarding medals.
 - 6) IPF Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals will be awarded to the top three images in each section at both the Advanced and Non-advanced level.
 - 7) The judges may, at their own discretion, award Gold, Silver, Bronze, and HM's based upon their final review, and regardless of the initial scores awarded.
 - 8) Photographer of the Year will be selected from the medal winners above (Open Sections Only), and may be awarded to either an Advanced or Non-Advanced photographer.
 - 9) Judge's medals may be awarded to any image in the competition provided that it has received an overall acceptance score
- This competition is a recognised competition for the purposes of gathering qualifiers to use in application for FIAP distinction. To attain a qualifier, entrants must have an image score in the top 35% in the national final. The Top 35% will be listed on the IPF website.
 - High scoring images will be retained by the IPF for possible selection for International competitions and FIAP Biennials and will be returned after selections take place.
 - A representative from each region must be present at the end of the competition to take possession of returned prints. The IPF will not accept responsibility for the safe keeping or return of prints after this point. It is up to the region to appoint whomsoever they wish.

General

- 1) The Irish Photographic Federation retains the right to reproduce any image entered in the competition in connection with publicizing or promoting the competition. The Irish Photographic Federation retains the right to publish any images entered in the competition in the annual Images of Distinction DVD. Copyright of the images shall remain with the respective authors. The Irish Photographic Federation retains the right to store the images in the National Archive Collection, and may use them to create online galleries or may display them on the IPF website.
- 2) The IPF National Council's decision in all matters relating to this competition is final.
- 3) Submission of any entry to this competition is deemed acceptance of these rules, as they relate to this competition.
- 4) All entries, (both open and themed) must conform to current specifications as defined by FIAP in each category of Monochrome Print, Colour Print, and Projected Image.
- 5) For the proper administration of IPF Competitions, amendments to the rules can be made at the end of the season on the recommendation of the National Competition Coordinator in consultation with the IPF primary officers.
- 6) The organisers will take reasonable care of the entries submitted but cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage to images. While every effort will be made to handle all print entries with care, the IPF, its regional bodies and agents working on its behalf, cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage incurred to prints.
- 7) IPF entries to all international competitions will be selected from the highest scoring images (theme relevant in the FIAP biennials) in each section of the National Photographer of the Year competition; and, the winning panel and images receiving individual awards in each category of all IPF National Competitions.

Definitions

1) Colour Print – Open

- Any printed colour image that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted in the Open Colour category.
- Any subject, theme or technique is eligible, provided that every element of the printed image is the work of the entrant.

2) Colour Print - Themed – Creative/Experimental Photography

- Any printed colour image that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted under the Creative/Experimental Photography theme. Terms that cover this genre include abstract, altered reality, contemporary, creative, surreal, experimental. Images may be altered, either digitally or otherwise, by the maker, but all elements of the image must have been taken by the entrant (clip art, stock, licensed or copyright free ingredients are not allowed).
- Photographic content should predominate. The original image content may be changed with adjustments, scenes altered, elements added, removed or replaced.
- The only limit is your imagination.

3) Monochrome Print – Open

- Any printed monochrome image that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted in the Open Monochrome category.
- Any subject, theme or technique is eligible, provided that every element of the printed image is the work of the entrant.
- A black and white work fitting from the very dark grey (black) to the very clear grey (white), is a monochrome image.
- A black and white work toned entirely in a single colour (eg, sepia, cyanotype, ambrotype or selenium toning) will be considered a monochrome work and therefore is eligible to be entered in this category.
- Multi-toned images, or images with an added colour accent are not eligible

4) Monochrome Print - Themed – Environmental Portraiture

- Any printed monochrome image that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted in the Environmental Portraiture category.
- An environmental portrait is a portrait taken of one or more people in their usual environment, such as their workplace or home, and should, in essence 'tell a story' about that person. Travel and street photography may be considered part of this category. Studio portraiture is excluded from this category.
- Manipulation of images in this category is permitted but must be kept to a minimum.

5) Projected Image – Open

- Any projected image, in colour or monochrome, that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted in this category. As with all other categories, all elements of the image must have been taken by the author. Manipulation of images is allowed.

6) Projected Image - Themed – The Human Face and Body

- Any projected colour image that complies with the general rules of the competition may be submitted under the Human Face and Body theme.
- The centre of interest in the image must be the human face and/or body in all its forms and manifestations, including nude and creative compositions.
- Images in this category may be taken indoors, in studio, or outdoors, and may include more than one person in the image.
