

IRISH PHOTOGRAPHIC FEDERATION DIGITAL AUDIO VISUAL INTERNATIONAL RULES
& CONDITIONS of ENTRY Updated, May 2019.

Conditions of Entry: Except where provided in these rules the decision of the organisers shall be final and binding. Submission of an entry implies that the entrant has read and accepted the following in all respects

This International Competition is open to all.

Gold; Silver; and Bronze medals will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place sequences and IPF Ribbons will be awarded at the judge's discretion. Sequences shown at previous International events at these Championships are excluded.

Duration: No sequence may exceed twelve-minute duration.

Authorship: For all sequences it is expected that the sequence production will be the original work of the entrant(s), (author(s)) and collaborators.

Copyright & Responsibility: Entrants using copyright material must obtain the necessary licence or permission. Submission of an entry implies the granting of permission for the sequence to be shown in public. Entrants must have a Copyright Performance Licence. Paid up members of the IPF AV Group are included in a group licence and hold an IPF AV Group Copyright performance licence. The Mechanical-Copyright Protection Society Ireland Ltd., (MCPS) Licence, grants permission to use music and sound only. In accordance with the established music and image copyright regulations, sequences presented at the Championships should be free of all rights of ownership, artistic or otherwise, which others may hold. By participating in the Championships author/s of AV sequences indemnify the organisers against all and any action that may be taken against them by owners of copyrights. The organisers will accept no responsibility in the case of dispute or litigation. All care will be taken in the handling of sequences, but the organisers cannot accept responsibility for loss, theft or damage

Judging: At least two qualified person(s) will judge The I.P.F. AV International Competition. They should be well known in Audio-Visual or a similar media. All entries will be shown. Judge(s) are not permitted to be entrants and his/her/their decision/s (regarding the results of the competition) is final.

Audience Vote: The audience can vote for their preferred best sequence in International competition. This is independent of the official judging.

Technical Requirements: A digital projector, computer (Windows Operating System platform) and sound system will be provided. Entries may be submitted by the following methods; A) electronically by file transfer protocol (FTP) "WeTransfer.com" or B) CD/DVD. All submitted entries shall be self-executable files (exe or mpeg4) named with the Sequences title*. All sequences should be standalone files and must run with no additional software requirements. Each sequence must run without software promotion slides and in full screen format. The sequence should be programmed with no 'run box', and to return to the desktop at the end. If a sequence does not meet these requirements then the work will be rejected from the competition. All entries should contain a folder for each slideshow clearly labelled and also include a copy of the entry/identification form. All CD/DVD's should be indelibly labelled. The sequence file and all other material should bear the name of the sequence as printed on the entry/identification form. All sequences will be copied to the Hard Drive for projection at the National Championships. Copied material (sequences) will be archived following the Festival and the CD returned, unless other arrangements have been made with the author. Those not wishing to have their work archived, may apply an expiry date to the file sent or tick the box on entry form re permission to archive. Author's permission will be sought for any showing of archival material for use of promoting AV. The right to grant or refuse permission for showing rests with the named Author.

The Entry Form should be sent together with proof of sequence entry fee, to the AV Secretary, Lilian Webb, A.I.P.F., 66 Roseville, Naas, Co. Kildare (ipfavgroup@gmail.com) to arrive not later than 13th September 2019.
